

VOLUME LXIII.

MUCH INTEREST IS EXPRESSED

WHO WILL BE NAMED FOR CON-SUS APPOINTMENTS TODAY.

IS DISTRICT INSPECTOR

Man Selected by President Will Have Naming of the Deputies Throughout District.

With the announcement from Washington the first of the present week that President Taft would today make public the names of the three hundred odd census inspectors who will have charge of the work of compiling the coming government census, much interest is shown in who will be named for the First Wisconsin congressional district. Each congressional district is entitled to at least one inspector, and this place carries with it considerable power, for it means the appointment of a host of local workers all over the district.

In the first district, there is much speculation as to whom Congressman Cooper will recommend. Word has come from Washington that President General Mitchell is to be consulted in the filling of the census places, and if this is true there is some guessing just where some of the "insurgent" congressmen will land with their lists. It is a question whether Mr. Mitchell, who is presented as a "regular" party man and who believes in maintaining party organization, will permit these insurgents to further intrude themselves in their home districts with this list of census workers, when they are continually living up with the democrats in legislative lands and embarrassing and disorganizing the administration whenever possible.

In case the congressmen's lists are turned down, it will then be up to the senators, and in Wisconsin this will bring about a rather peculiar situation. Senator La Follette stands as little favor at the White house as his insurgent followers in the house, and he will never be allowed to name the census list. Then it will be up to Senator Stephenson—not only in his own half of the state but in several congressional districts in La Follette's territory where the congressmen have shown their displeasure toward the administration, one of which will be the first district.

It is said that President Taft has declared that these posts must be filled purely on a basis of qualifications and regardless of party affiliations, but the insurgent policy has spread so far that it seems unlikely that the powers at Washington—and no one is more powerful than Frank B. Mitchell—will overlook such an opportunity of curbing his progress.

It is even hinted that the policy that is followed in the census matter will be followed in future postoffice appointments, and that where insurgent congressmen reside, appointments will be passed on to the senators, regardless of the time-honored custom which has never allowed interference of any kind with the wisdom of the congressmen.

WILL HOLD WHEAT FOR HIGHER PRICES

This is the Opinion of Men Conversant With the Situation at Present.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Superior, Wis., Aug. 14.—"From what I could determine in my travels through the district in the past month the farmers will doubtless hold their wheat in the west and demand higher prices." These are the words of M.
J. Casel, of the North Dakota Grain company while talking with local grain men in regard to the western wheat prospects. Mr. Casel says that there is no apparent crop shortage as was feared there might be.
Every station, junction point and siding has cars reserved on every available bit of track.

At Superior Docks:
All coal now used in the Wisconsin Central or the Chicago division of the Soo line as it is now known, is now obtained from the docks in Superior. Before its entry into Superior the Central got its coal used on its line from the bituminous coal fields of Illinois. Since it has been found to be cheaper to get it in Superior, it has been decided by the officials of the road to make the change. Besides saving a large sum in the cost of the coal it has also been found that the fuel obtained here is of a much better grade. From fifty to sixty cars of coal are used by the Central each day. The addition of the Central to the list of roads obtaining their company coal from the Superior docks makes a big difference in the coal companies doing business here.

States Steel Corporation has already spent $1,000,000 in preliminary incidental to the construction of its proposed plant.

the principal features of Monmouth and adjoining counties is the annual farmers' "washday" at the seashore.
Thousands of the farmers go miles around the coast to the beach today to take their annual sea bath.
They came with their wives, sweet-and afoot. While the farmers took their wash thousands of the fashionable summer colonists looked on.

The bathing suits were of great variety, many of the wives and daughters being dressed in tight-fitting wrap-

TAFT WILL REMAIN AT SUMMER CAPITAL

President Has No Public Engagements to Take Him Away From Denver.—Forecast of Week's News.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Washington, D. C., Aug. 14.—No public engagements are scheduled to break the quiet of President Taft's second week at Denver though luncheon and neighborly calls, with a possible run over to Marblehead to witness the trial tender boat races for the Taft cup, and daily contents on the superb golf links at Beverly will serve to prevent him from hanging heavily on the hands of the nation's chief executive.

Events of political interest are scheduled for three widely separated sections of the country. In South Carolina local option elections held simultaneously in twenty-one counties that are now "wet" will determine whether that state shall be added to the fold of prohibition territory which now embraces nearly all of the southeastern states. A general primary will be held in Nebraska to nominate candidates for the state offices to be filled at the November election, and in San Francisco, where the political situation has attracted national attention, a primary will be held for the selection of candidates for mayor and other city officials.

Bids for the construction of the battleships Arkansas and Wyoming, authorized by the last congress, will be opened at the navy department, Wednesday. These ships will be of the Delaware type, of 20,000 tons or more displacement.

The final steps looking to the reorganization of the Great Western railroad will be taken in St. Paul, Saturday, when the road will be sold at public auction. The sale will be pursued by a legal formality incident to the reorganization and rehabilitation of the property according to plans completed by J. P. Morgan & Co., who will obtain control.

An interesting week is promised at the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exposition. Wednesday has been designated as German Day and is expected to draw a record-breaking crowd. State days will be observed in honor of Pennsylvania, South Dakota and Michigan.

PRINCE NICHOLAS TO BECOME A KING

Ruler of Montenegro Will Assume
New Title in Fiftieth Year of His Reign.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Nicoma, Aug. 14.—If nothing happens to prevent it, Europe will have an additional king one year from today. Prince Nicholas of Montenegro, who today begins the fiftieth year of his reign, has announced that on the fiftieth anniversary of his accession to the throne, which will be on August 14, 1910, he will assume the title of King. No objection to this change of title was made by the other powers, as there was really no reason to object, Montenegro being a free and independent country, owing allegiance to no other nation. The Montenegrins, who were ill pleased when their beloved ruler surrounded himself with a few years ago and gave them a constitution, are perfectly delighted with the prospect of having a king for their ruler one year hence. The future king is the idol of his people and it is generally admitted that they have every reason to be satisfied with his rule.

Prince Nicholas was born October 7, 1811, and is a direct descendant of the noble warriors who fought under the banner of the Turks in the eleventh and twelfth centuries.
George Balza, the last of the line, died in 1421, and Stefan Cernojewski, a relative of him, was chosen as prince of Montenegro. In 1516 the last descendant of this noble line resigned into the hands of the Metropolitan Vasil, prince bishop of Mon-tegrino. Then followed a line of prince bishops, which ended with Peter II.
His nephew and successor, Prince Danilo II., who wished to marry, separated the prince from the ecclesiastical functions and married the daughter of a noble Slav family in Trieste. But he had no son and, when he was assassinated in 1860, his nephew, the present ruler, succeeded to the throne and on November 8, 1860 was married to Mileena Petro-vna Vukobratovic, daughter of Peter Vukobratovic, senator and Vice President of the Council of State. They had ten children, nine of whom, three sons and six daughters, are still living. Prince Danilo, a fine and athletic young man, is the prospective heir to the throne and his brothers are the Princes Mike and Peter.

One of the daughters of Nicholas is now Queen of Italy, another married a Russian Grand Duke, a third the duke of Leuchtenberg and a fourth the Prince Francis Joseph of Battenberg.

letic young man, is the prospective

YOUTHFUL BANDIT'S TERM EIGHT YEARS

Boy Bank Robber Will Go to the Green Bay Reformatory.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Merrill, Wis., Aug. 14.—Almost ready to sink down in anguish and apparently weak from the effects of a rifle bullet which was shot into his side on May 28, John Laya, the boy robber of the German-American State bank, was sentenced to the Green Bay reformatory for eight years by Judge Ridd, Laya, it is generally believed, was led into this, his first crime, by older men and at the time did not realize the seriousness of it.
He is only 18 years of age.

The bank robbery occurred May 28 at about three o'clock in the afternoon. Four men were in the bank, and all of them entered the bank, which contained quite a number of patrons at the time. John Laya stood at the cashier's window and presented a five dollar bill, asking for small change. When Mr. Balstad, the cashier, turned to deliver the change, he found a Mauser rifle in his face and was told to hold up his hands.
In the meantime, one of the other members of the gang rifled the cash drawer of $435, and then the four men made a break across the Wisconsin river to Riverdale park. A posse followed immediately and Laya was shot in the hip. He was later captured, together with Martin Krog-nos, Fritz Mollenberg and August Steerlin who were never caught.

ULTIMATUM TO STREET CAR CO

CITY ATTORNEY MAXFIELD MAKES HIS DEMANDS.

FOR IMPROVED SERVICE

And Settlement of About $2,475 Outstanding Indebtedness to City—Heed or Forfeit Franchise!

City Attorney H. L. Maxfield's ultimatum to the Janesville Street Railway Co., calling for improved cars and rails, the restoration of the Park line, the payment to the city of some $2,475 outstanding indebtedness for improvements between the cars and the city, and the city's grievances against the company are set forth as follows:

To the Janesville Street Railway Co., Janesville, Wis.

Gentlemen: You are hereby notified to replace the cars that you are now operating for the transportation of passengers over your street railway system in the City of Janesville with respectable appearing, safe and sanitary cars, of modern pattern and such as are used by street railway companies in other cities that have electricity for motive power; to balance and level up your tracks so as to make them smooth, and to replace any decayed ties with good, sound ones; to so change and alter your tracks that they will correspond with the grade, or surface of the streets on which they are laid; to replace all rails that are now laid on East Milwaukee street from Main street to High street, with the style and size of rails used by street railway companies in other cities on streets that are paved with brick, and that are of sufficient width to protect the brick pavement from being injured by coming into contact with the car wheels, said rails being known as and called six-inch flange rails; to pay to said city of Janesville the sum of Two Thousand Four Hundred Dollars ($2,400) for the paving with brick between the rails on West Milwaukee street from the east side of High street to the west side of Academy street, on East Milwaukee street from Main street to the east side of East street, and on South Main street from the north side of East Milwaukee street to the south side of St. Lawrence Avenue, for repairing Milwaukee street bridge, and for grading and macadamizing between the tracks on Milwaukee Avenue from the east side of East street to the east side of Harrison street.

To also pay to said city of Janesville the sum of Seventy-Five Dollars ($75.00) for restoring Milton Avenue from St. Mary's Avenue north to the city limits to its original condition after the surface of said Milton Avenue had been dug up and left rough and uneven by your said street railway company, so rendering said Avenue almost impassable, while extending your street railway system and laying your tracks over said Milton Avenue from St. Mary's Avenue north to the city limits.

To resume the operation of your street cars over your street railway system from the intersection of Milwaukee Avenue to Jackson street, over said Jackson street to Oakland Avenue, the same as you now operate over the rest of your street railway system in said city.

To refund the support of the trolley wires of your street railway system by running wires attached to the trolley wires to posts set on either side of the streets over which your railway system is operated, and that you discontinue the operation of your cars over your street railway system at an unlawful rate of speed.

To equip and operate your said street railway system in said city so as to comply with the terms of your franchise granted to your said street railway company by the common council of said city on the 8th day of October, 1885, and as amended from time to time.

And also to discontinue blocking South Main street and other streets over which your railway system passes while repairing your tracks.

And in case of your failure to do an action will be commenced to declare a forfeiture of your said franchise.

CITY OF JANESVILLE, By H. L. Maxfield, City Attorney.

Under the auspices of the Janesville Lodge of Elks on Friday night, August 27, the first performance on any stage will be given at the Myers Theatre of "Lo," a musical comedy which The Harry Ashin Co. now has in rehearsal at the Grand opera-house, Chicago, and which it is expected will make a distinctly new era in musical plays.

With its book and lyrics by O. Henry and Franklin P. Adams, two literary who stand highest in their respected fields today, music by Baldwin Stone, and rehearsed under the management of Harry Ashin, the man who not only handled the production of the Ashin-Steger Co., "The Time, the Place and the Girl," "The Girl Question," etc., and made them establish new records in receipts for smartness and delightful entertainment, "Lo," has a plot and originality of development which no other musical comedy of the past decade has possessed.

John E. Young, the featured member of the cast, has a role somewhat similar to that of Happy Johnny Hicks, a part he has played for the past two years. In "The Time, the Place and the Girl," but his speeches while staid and idiomatic have that distinction and atmosphere of class about them which make O. Henry's writings indelible. The plot of "Lo" concerns largely the attempt of a beautiful cosmopolitan countess to start a revolution in South America. Mr. Young has been in former years an assistant revolutionary leader and he has had all he wants of South American revolutions. Here is part of his reply to her invitation: "Speaking of them revolutions, say—I got near enough once to say 'Hello' to it once. I was running a hotel on Fourth Avenue—one of those places with striped awnings such as the mayor or of Waukegan or the governor of Missouri might stop at. We made a plug for the Cuban and South American trade. We invested ten thousand dollars in electric lights, anyone paper, and garlie and we had a cock fight in the basement every Sunday. Well, one day a little foreign person named General Tuxedo registered from Mexico. He was a little man the color of viol red with mahogany whiskers and a line of talk that sounded like the last words of a bicycle pump."

WASHOUTS FOUND ON BOTH THE RAILROADS

Storm Last Night Played Havoc With the Roads.

Numerous washouts of both the North Western and St. Paul roads, due to the heavy rains of the past several days and last night in particular, have tied up freight and passenger traffic until now trains are on time and several are hours late.

On the Mineral Point Division of the St. Paul R. R. the Shullsburg, Warren and Plattville branches and the three that up to washouts. On the Mineral Point main line, a washout between Gratiot and Eau Claire has blocked traffic completely. Train number 8 due to arrive in Janesville from Mineral Point at 10:15 was caught on the edge of the damaged right of way and forced to remain. Passengers at Janesville for Milwaukee who usually take number eight to Milton Jet, and catch number 8 on the Prairie du Chien Division for the Cream City, were forced to take 310 out of Janesville.

On the Omaha Division of the North Western road the traffic is also tied up. North of Elroy washouts have made the passage of trains impossible and it has been found necessary to run the trains over the St. Paul tracks from Camp Douglas to Watertown and from there to Janesville by way of Jefferson Jet, Milton and Ft. Atkinson. Trains 608 and 510 were delayed several hours this morning.

Although the traffic is disorganized, it is thought that the damage will be confined to the road-bed as no derailments or wrecks have been reported.

Conductor Church's head-end brake-man, while standing on the rails at the passenger depot watching the extra which was standing at the Elroy Point, was struck by train 514 from the rear but not injured. Then the engineer blew his whistle.

Engineer Knappman is running the switch-engine at Harvard for a few days. Freeman H. K. Smith is relieving Knappman on 588 and 595.

Freeman W. M. Smith is laying off today to go to Watertown. Freeman Fleming has his place on the switch-engine 1156 with Engineer Cole.

Freeman Garry went to Chicago yesterday afternoon on an extra at four o'clock with engine 57.

Machinist Simpson Lawson returned to work today after spending a week's vacation in Michigan.

Engineer Schoenberg has the extra board switch-engine today.

Switchman Roy Horn returned to work this morning, displacing Ed. Dier who has been relieving him.

The electric lights at the round-house were glimmering last night about 1:30, causing much confusion.

Night Switchman Ed. Horn is laying off for what purpose is not stated, but friends are making some shrewd guesses that make him appear self-conscious.

Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Engineer Olsonburger and Fireman Mills, double-headed Milledon and Olson on last night on number 1327, with engine 1327. Mills double-headed to Milwaukee this morning.

Engineer Wilkenson and Fireman Kniffing took 105 out this morning.

Three circus trains left for Shullsburg last night between one and two o'clock. Engineer Faltor and Fireman J. Rooney took the first train, Steno and McAniff the second, and Higgins and L. Rooney the third. It is reported this morning that the trains are stalled on the line by a washout. The shows were the Yankee Robinson circus.

A new tank for engine 1341 has arrived in the house and the engine will be sent out on the Davis Junction passenger coach in the place of the 1236.

Traveling Engineer Ivons was in Janesville this morning.

BLAZE MIGHT HAVE DONE MUCH DAMAGE

Quick Work of Fire Department Saved Marshall Co. Big Loss by Fire This Morning.

Damage, amounting to hundreds of dollars, might have resulted but for the timely discovery of a blaze in the Marshall factory this morning about half-past four. Some boxes and other material in the northeast corner of the second floor of the factory caught fire and were blazing up when one of the men employed at the Janesville Electric company's plant saw it and sent in an alarm. The fire department immediately responded and by the use of chemicals smothered the blaze so that the burning boxes and other debris could be thrown out.

Ask the Salesman How Much the Car Weighs.

The Ford Model "T" Weighs 53.3 Pounds per horse power—entirely as a twenty—it is listed as 22 1/2 according to the Royal Automobile Club of England formula on engine sizes. This formula is accepted as standard both here and abroad. The average weight of other cars selling for $2,000.00 or less and figured according to same formula is about 85 lbs. per horse power. As every pound of weight costs money to move, money for gasoline, for tires and for repairs, this difference represents considerable expense to the owner.

It develops 5,900 h. p., so that it weighs 53.8 lbs. per horse power, or almost identically the same as the Ford car. The Pacific type engine and the Ford automobile are each designed for passenger service.

SCIENCE AND INVENTION

MACHINE FOR PICKING FOWL.

Mechanical Contrivance Invented That Takes Feathers from Poultry Automatically.

A machine for picking poultry has recently been invented which possesses many admirable features, chief of which is that it does not require an operator to hold the fowl against the pickers, as the Scientific American says. The fowls are attached to a belt which travels through the machine, and the picking is done automatically. The endless belt on which the fowls are hung is indicated at A in the engraving and it passes upward through the picking chamber B. Within the latter are two types of pickers. The lower pickers are of the form indicated in Fig. 2. They consist of a tubular member C flexibly connected with a tubular spindle which passes through a frame arranged within the picking chamber. The picker may be moved out of its normal position in any direction required by the passage of the fowl through the chamber. The member C is provided with a comb D and a slot E adjacent thereto. Air may be fed from pipe F through the spindle and the slot E. The spindle carries a double grooved pulley G by which it is connected to an oscillating mechanism. The upper series of pickers are of the form indicated in Figs. 3 and 4. They are also flexibly connected to spindles whereby they may be oscillated and at the same time be moved in any desired direction. The tip of each picker H is of annular corrugated form, this form being produced by means of rings J which encircle the flexible tips and rings I of larger diameter which are situated within the flexible tips. The pickers H communicate with an air supply and an alternate compression and vacuum is produced in them, causing them to expand and contract like a cylindrical bellows. The feathers and down on the fowl are grasped between the folds of the bellows and pulled off as the fowl is fed upward by the belt. In order that all parts of the fowl may be brought into contact with the pickers, the belt is given a half turn as it passes through the picking chamber. A small compressor K is used in connection with this machine and supplies a compressing chamber L and exhausts the air from a vacuum chamber M. A three-way valve N serves to connect pipe P first with one chamber and then with the other. This valve is operated by a piston which connects with a wheel O. The latter is oscillated by means of a continuously revolving wheel R with which it is connected by a piston. The pipe P communicates with the pickers and operates the bellows H in the manner just described. The pickers C are arranged to seize the feathers by means of the combs D and at the same time the suction through the slot E serves to hold the feathers fast to the pickers and causes them to be torn from the fowl. Immediately thereafter a supply of compressed air passes through the picker, causing it to release the feathers, which are then blown out of the top of the chamber by means of a continuous draft of compressed air from the supply pipe Q. The pickers are all belted together and are rocked back and forth by means of belt connection with the oscillating wheel O.

The Iceless Refrigerator.
A scheme for an iceless refrigerator, for use of poor families, has been evolved by Miss Winifred Gibbs, cooking teacher and dietitian on the staff of the society for improving the condition of the poor. It is designed to do away with the use not only of the icebox, but ice itself.

Miss Gibbs' refrigerator consists of tubes into which sawdust is placed. Whatever is needed to be kept cool may be packed in the sawdust in bottles or tin boxes and the temperature will be maintained for a least three days exactly as when placed in the refrigerator. The sawdust will prevent outside heat from reaching the receptacle inside. The refrigerator is intended particularly to keep milk cold as when delivered by the milkman.

An International Time Clock.
San Diego, Cal., has a wonderful clock with 30 dials which tell simultaneously the time in all parts of the world, also the days of the week and the date and month. It stands 21 feet high and four of its dials are each four feet in diameter. The master clock is inclosed in plate glass, and the whole is illuminated every night. It is jeweled with tourmaline, topaz, agate and jade, and took 15 months to build. The motive power is a 200-pound weight, which winds itself automatically. The cost of the clock was $3,000.

The New Idea.
"He hasn't much sense," said the health fad enthusiast, disgustedly. "Why, he hasn't enough sense to go out into the wet."

Work Means Growth.
Work is the only means of growth. Not to work is to keep always an undeveloped mind, or heart, or brain. The things which work may achieve are not half so important as that which work does in us.—Turner.

The Soul of the Dog.
The inferior and animal soul of the dog contains purer elements of natural, spontaneous and boundless kindness than that of the best of men.—H. Laverdan, in Paris Illustration.

Gossip.
Gossip is a sort of smoke that comes from the dirty tobacco-pipes of those who diffuse it; it proves nothing but the bad taste of the smoker.—George Eliot, "Daniel Deronda."

When buying advertised goods or answering ads, please mention The G A Z E T T E

London Paupers.
In the whole history of the poor law system the figures for the indoor poor of the metropolis have never reached the point now touched by the last official returns. In the 40 work-houses of Greater London there were 80,183 boarders, and 46,821 people were receiving outdoor relief. This gives a rate of 28.5 paupers per 1,000 of population.—London News.

Chronic.
"Away down in her heart," said the boardlike house philosopher, "every woman is a pessimist. When any calamity happens she always wants to know the worst, and isn't happy until she hears it."

Daily Thought.
The sorrow of yesterday is no nothing, that of to-day is bearable, but that of to-morrow is gigantic because indistinct.—Euripides.

Her Chief Desires.
Give a woman a good complexion and fine clothes and she can be cheerful in spite of other drawbacks.

Another Fallacy Exploded.
The fact that insanity is much more prone to produce in art what is commonplace than what is original, may, perhaps, be borne in mind by those critics who are so ready to brand as morbid and decadent every artistic development which conflicts with conventional models.—London Lancet.

Brains on the Farm.
Agriculture is everywhere being recognized as "the coming industry." The old notion that the man who works with his intellect more than with his muscles is not a real farmer, but only an imitation, is fast becoming relegated to the background.—Business Man's Magazine.

Disimilarity.
"You're not like lightning, anyhow, Dinguss," said Shadbolt, reluctantly taking out his pocket-book. "You can strike the same man dozens of times."

Charles O. Pratt the new labor leader has indicated new tactics for his organization.

SELECTING THE RIGHT SCHOOL

You cannot exercise too much care. It is not a case of maybe, but it is actually the turning point in a young person's career. Many young people enter school each year with the intention of preparing a career for themselves, either business or professional. The success of each one will depend, to a large extent, upon the aim of the institution from which he graduates. Ability goes far toward success, but without the proper development of this ability it avails him little.

Attractive literature and flattering statements have been the cause of many disappointments in the college career of bright young people. Any institution can make claims that appear attractive, but to make claims and furnish proofs are two distinct propositions. This school has always stood alone in defending what we consider the paramount principle in business—HONEST STATEMENTS. No one has ever dared to come before us and say that we have made one dishonest claim. To you, who have several schools under consideration, we would say,

Take Time to Investigate Carefully and Intelligently

There is a difference in Commercial Colleges as in everything else. Quackery and sham abound in great variety. High-sounding claims and pretenses are usually an indication of lack of merit.

THE SOUTHERN WISCONSIN BUSINESS COLLEGE

enrolls a large number of young people each year, who have attended other neighboring schools. Many of these students are discouraged with the work they have had and it is only after some persuasion that they come to us. To this class of young people we have proved the difference between schools that CLAIM and one that DOES. If you have partially prepared yourself in any school and desire to complete your education, we would be glad to have you look through our school. Each year we enroll a larger number of this class of students than the previous year. One enrolled recently from a neighboring school after attending it several months.

We Invite Comparisons. We Court Investigations
Unless we are able to convince prospective patrons of the superior facilities and methods afforded by the Southern Wis. Bus. College, and our ability to make good every representation, we do not expect their patronage. Our policy is rather to understate than to overstate the advantages of the school and thus those attending are gratified and not in the least degree disappointed.

THE DESIRABLE FEATURES OF A MODERN COMMERCIAL SCHOOL

Management
It should be controlled and conducted by a successful business man who understands the business conditions of the hour and who is independent enough to accept only such students as he knows are fitted to take up the work and be successful. The President and Founder of the S. W. B. C. is thoroughly familiar with modern methods of doing business, having had several years of active office experience in addition to his large teaching experience.

Methods
The School professing to train young people for active participation in business affairs should be abreast of the times in all of its methods of instruction. It should have modern systems of Bookkeeping and Shorthand, and its teaching force should have a pedagogical training. The S. W. B. C. is the headquarters for the famous Sadler-Rowe System of Bookkeeping and Charter Shorthand, the latest and greatest improvement ever made in the stenographic art. This System can be learned in one-half the time required to learn any of the old systems.

Equipment and Class Rooms
The equipment of the S. W. B. C. is modern and ample, the class rooms well lighted and cheerful. Every modern office device known is provided for students' use.

Positions for Graduates
Every modern business school should be able to insure desirable positions to ALL students who successfully complete its course of study. In this respect we stand alone as the most successful school in the Northwest. WE PLACE EVERY GRADUATE OR REFUND TUITION.

Reputation
The school should have been established long enough to have demonstrated its success or should be able to show it has decided advantages which warrant consideration of its claims.

OUR SATURDAY NIGHT

There are three sides to every dispute—the inside and the outside and the wrong side. Make sure you see the right side when you pass judgment. But before you bother about the matter at all figure out whether it's any affair of yours to give an opinion. Chances are that you are a meddling, meddling, interfering butterfly—a self-constituted, unsummoned jury of one.

See to it when you chase the chickens out of your neighbor's garden that you, yourself, don't create more havoc by trampling down the flowers.

Mind your own business. If you have one, it needs all the attention

you can give it. If you find that you have any attention to spare, you need a new sort of business.

Lending advice is like lending money—it destroys every other friendship.

A still tongue is a multitude of virtues.

Get out of the habit of making other people's beds. Keeping your own comfortable is a good-sized life-task.

The man who shoots off his mouth and kills a good name deserves as much punishment as that other type of prize idiot, who shoots off a gun without noticing where it's pointed.

The fact that neither one knows "it is loaded" doesn't hurt.

"See, hear and speak no evil," is one of the first lessons imparted in the mind of a Japanese child.—Herbert Kaufman.

.....

"Don't be a butter-in, but mind your own business," is the title of this little sermon, so characteristic of Mr.

Kaufman. It expresses in a nutshell a volume of truths which can be remembered and practiced to advantage.

The story is told of a gentleman who entered an Irish shanty to separate a man and his wife who were fighting, when suddenly the disputants turned on him and threw him out of doors with the remark, "That is it to you?"

This family far, like many others, could be best settled without outside interference, and yet the pleasure of living would be largely discounted if this occupation were destroyed, for there's nothing quite so attractive to most of us as a friendly mix-up with other people's affairs.

When it isn't possible to get near enough to mix up in the notes, the next best thing is always available, and that is the ability and disposition to wag the tongue, and the average tongue don't belong to the union, and works overtime without complaint.

The only advantage which the large city has to offer over the country and smaller centers of population, is found in the fact that next-door neighbors are generally unknown, and gossip is out of the question.

Just why it is that the weak side of human nature appeals to us so strongly and why it is that the bad is so much more readily discovered than the good, are unsolved problems, but such is life.

Next to character the most priceless jewel is reputation; yet the highway of life is lined with wreckage, for which the tongue of gossip is alone responsible.

Many good people have bad tongues, and people who are temperate in everything else frequently fall in controlling that unruly member, "which no man can tame," and so reputations are ruthlessly attacked and too often ruined.

There are two kinds of trouble which should be avoided, One belonga to other people, and they should be permitted to enjoy it undisturbed;

the other is borrowed trouble, which most any kind of a bank account is capable of assuming. In fact people who would find it difficult to borrow a dollar find no trouble in borrowing this commodity.

Of course kindly sympathy and a helping hand in time of misfortune is always commendable, but butting in at every occasion in family or business affairs, is another proposition.

The woman who has no children is usually a delegate to the mothers' convention. She knows all about the subject because she has made a careful study of her neighbor's flock, across the street, and has on occasion

assailed the third mother with a word of caustic advice.

The man without a boy tells you what he would do with that "brat"

if he belonged to him, and yet troubled fathers and mothers, doing the best they know, manage to perpetuate the race creditably. In spite of this class of assistants.

Some years ago a business man, struggling under adverse circumstances to keep his head above the water and maintain a well-established reputation for honesty, had his attention called one morning to some figures on a dry-goods box in front of a store.

Asking what they meant he was told that his friend, —, inscribed them saying in a mysterious way,

"That's what the man owes and he is liable to quit at any time." That sort of a butter-in deserved to be buttered off the bridge.

The railroad companies have been badly handicapped during the past few years, and their troubles have largely increased, because so many people have been free with advice as to how their business should be conducted.

The average state legislature is composed of men of ordinary ability and but few of the members have any knowledge of corporations. Yet these men assume to pass laws which are oppressive and frequently unjust.

Many magazine writers and cheap reformers have contributed to the disturbance, which but for the panic of 1906 would still be in full blast.

But the man who borrows trouble is the man after all who gets less for his investment than any other class of trouble-makers, because it develops the faculty of worrying, and worry is more fatal to health than any other disease.

When the clouds were banking up in the west, one hot night last week and thunder was rolling in quick response to vivid lightning flashes, two men stood on the lake shore watching the progress of the storm.

They were disciples of Dr. Hieks, the weather prophet, and one of his storms was due. So they proposed to watch it out rather than take the chances of being blown out of bed.

At eleven o'clock the thunder died away and in half an hour the empy space sparkled with starlight while the clouds rolled back and disappeared from the horizon. Thus it is with many of the troubles which loom up along the pathway of life and threaten to engulf us.

Borrow money when you need it if you can, but don't borrow trouble.

There's nothing in it and life is too short.

Uncle Walt
of EmporiaBy WALT MASON (Copyright, 1909, by George Matthew Adams.)

Old age is coming on apace, and bringing wrinkles to my face, and thinning out my hair; the years have undermined my strength, and bent my stature back at length.

But, really, I don't care. I found life's morning calm and sweet; I labored in the moonlight's heat—now come the rest and shade; the sun is sinking in the west, but I have always done my best.

Dusk finds me unafraid. Why should a weary pilgrim grope, when he has reached life's quiet eve, with all its clamor past? Why should the weary worn pilgrim wail, who, buffeted by storm and gale, a refuge finds at last?

If you can say: "I've done my best,

while I have been a transient guest,

in this old tavern here," then may you go with buoyant tread and dauntless spirit to your bed, for there is naught to fear. You've made, no doubt, some weird mistakes; you've left a trail of foolish blunders, but blunders are no sin; if you have tried to travel straight, the guardian of the shining gate, will bid you enter in. And so the twilight hour is sweet, to pilgrims in throngs; they are not children in the dark, appalled by phantoms stern and stark, but lulled by angel songs.

HEE-HAW

OH!

What musical instrument?

Your Neighbor.

There is an idea abroad among moral people that they should make their neighbors good. One person I have to make good—myself. But my duty to my neighbor is much more nearly expressed by saying that I have to make him happy—if I may.—

Robert Louis Stevenson.

CASHED A CHECK; 'TAS WORTHLESS

BROOK SALOON MULED TO THE TUNE OF $29.

BY PARK HOTEL CLERK

Raymond Smaller, Who Was Out on Big Spree Yesterday—Later Left for Marinette on Early Train.

Raymond Smaller, who has been clerking at the Park hotel since he relinquished his position as time-keeper with Mulholland & Son, sewer contractors, several weeks ago, was in all probability placed under arrest on the charge of cashing a worthless check for $29 as he disembarked from a C. & N. W. train at Marinette this noon.

According to reports received at the police station early yesterday afternoon, Smaller, in a hilarious state of intoxication, was driving about the countryside with an open high-powered buggy and a half-bred horse secured at Nelson's livery barn. It was stated that the animal had fallen down once during the drive and was being subjected to unmerciful treatment. The driver was wearing a pair of automobile goggles which he had taken from Kemmer's garage and earlier in the afternoon wanted to fight Frank Mount for stopping him at the Hotel Myers corner and calling attention to a part of the harness which had become unfastened. Chief Appleby drove several miles through the mud in pursuit of the young man, but was unable to overtake and take the steed away from him.

About five o'clock the hotel clerk brought the horse back to the barn and not long thereafter he visited the Brook saloon, which is now owned by George Rudersdorf, and persuaded the bartender, H. A. Fleming, to disburse strict orders he had received from his employer and cash a check on the Rock County bank purporting to be drawn in Smaller's favor by a brother, R. J. Smaller. When the check was presented for payment this morning the bank officials informed Mr. Rudersdorf that no such person as R. J. Smaller had any account at that bank.

Meantime Smaller had pocketed all of his belongings and boarded the 6:50 midnight train. He told the driver who conveyed him to the depot that he was going to Montana, but his ticket was to Marinette, Wisconsin, where his mother is supposed to be living. After filing a complaint with the police, Mr. Rudersdorf experienced a change of heart and decided not to prosecute, because, he said, the liquor which intoxicated Smaller and perhaps induced the alleged criminal act might have been purchased in his (Mr. Rudersdorf's) saloon. If this were the case he would not wish to have the responsibility for the boy's being sent to the penitentiary, for instance, resting on his conscience.

Chief Appleby tried to reach Marinette by telephone again to instruct the sheriff that Smaller was not wanted here so badly as was at first supposed but "fell" failed to get the connection for him in the headquarters of an hour intervening before the arrival of the train in the northern city and the attempt had to be abandoned. What will be done about the matter, now, remains to be seen. Mr. Kemmer is anxious to get his automobile goggles back and there may be others who wish to have an accounting with the gentleman.

Smaller is short in stature, with light reddish hair and small eyes set very close together. He generally wore a small green cap.

ALLEN AHEAD FIRST ROUND OF FINALS

Kenosha Players Playing For State Championship Honors At State Tourney.

Word from Milwaukee this afternoon showed that C. C. Allen, the 1909 gold medalist player was two up on his opponent Dick Cavanaugh, also of Kenosha on the first eighteen holes of the championship round of the tourney at the Blue Mounds country club. Cavanaugh defeated Chester Morse of this city in the preliminary round making a new record for Blue Mound Club of seventy for net professional.

Yesterday's play left two Janesville players in for cups. H. E. Baugh of Janesville defeated D. P. Wheeler of Madison five up and four to play and Chester Morse won from A. J. Lunt of Racine one up in nineteen holes. H. E. Baugh had earlier in the day defeated A. A. Gilbert of Ithaca, LaCrosse to have the next tournament and the Earl Chalmers and Sheboygan clubs were admitted to membership.

FIREMEN DESIRE TO BUY A GOOD ROWBOAT

It has been the hope of the firemen of the West Side Fire station that the city would furnish them with a nice new rowboat, but as the city fails to provide this for their pleasure, the men have decided to save their pennies and purchase a good second hand skiff, providing one can be found that is willing to sell. For many months the boys have gazed with delight on the opportunities offered them for boating and hoped that some kind-hearted philanthropist would see the anxious look in their eyes and supply their wants, but as yet one has failed to appear. This morning they could stand it no longer and decided to advertise for a boat. If pushing the boat fails to raise the sum required for the purchase of the boat, the funds will be taken and a nice fat duck, or ducks, will be bought something that they can call "ours."

Across the street from the first station lies a nice deep pool of water, where water which fell during the rains has accumulated. Also the sewer pipe at the foot of the alley between the station and Reus' saloon does not carry off all the waste and after each rain a deep puddle gathers there. As there seems to be no other use for this waste water and no means for carrying it all off, the members of the department, with the citizens' consent, wish to use it for pleasure purposes.

GAMES CALLED OFF ON THE ACCOUNT OF RAIN

Baseball Grounds Were Too Wet For Commercial League Players To Complete.

All games in the Commercial league today were called off, the captains or managers agreeing to let them go today and play them off some other time before the end of the season. At the fair grounds and at Athletic Park, there were miniature swimming pools and sliding basins would impart an Ethiopian tinge to the complexion and the clothes of the players. At Dunn's pasture, everything was saturated and playing only with a suit of rubber. The board of directors will meet this evening and decide on definite arrangements will be made for playing the postponed games. Possibly an arrangement will be made whereby the games will start next Saturday at one o'clock, so that each team may play the postponed game and the scheduled contest. If it were possible, post-season games might be played, but after the first of September, the half holidays granted by the factories will end. Tomorrow at Dunn's pasture Brown's Colts will engage in a contest with Bowers' Telephones.

CHURCHES MAY FORM AN ATHLETIC LEAGUE

Sunday School Workers Boosting Scheme For Organization Among Churches of City.

Although as yet there has been nothing but talking done, members of the various Sunday schools of the city are very desirous of securing an athletic league among the churches of the city. The plan has been tried in other cities and it is thought that the would be of use in the city. The primary motive of the scheme is to keep the boys in their games interested in their Sunday school and hold them there. When a youth reaches a certain age, other things besides Sunday school appeal to him and unless something is done, his interest often falls and he drops out of the school.

One thing that has been found necessary in this work in other cities is that the Y. M. C. A. furnish the physical Director of the city, offered to do this if he were here, but there seemed to be some uncertainty as to his presence here.

Vurpillat Warns Epileptics Rare Meat Dangerous

Office At 509 W. Milwaukee St. To Be Kept Open Sunday. Another Monster Destroyed, Abe Adamany the Relieved Sufferer.

Vurpillat, the man who is creating a sensation in Janesville by the sale of his preparations was interviewed today and gave forth some very logical arguments in regard to disease of all kinds and natures, saying that no person could expect to be cured of any ill, if the stomach was not in a healthy condition and that it was the seat of all or most chronic trouble.

Vurpillat says that most people unconsciously abuse their stomachs more than any part of the body, and if they knew the tasks that this most important organ of the system were put to, they would wonder how it is that they still live and breathe.

One statement which seems strange is the claim that no person whose stomach was in a clean, wholesome and healthy condition and performed all the functions for which it was intended, could be susceptible to disease.

In reference to diet, Vurpillat said that rare meat is one of the most dangerous foods for a human being to eat, as it may contain the egg of a parasite. Unless meat is sufficiently cooked to kill this egg, it is taken into the stomach where it immediately hatches and grows with an astonishing rate. It travels from the stomach to the intestines and remains there, growing larger each day until it has reached enormous proportions.

Every particle of food which is passed into the intestines after being digested by the stomach is preyed upon by this creature so that the nourishment which should go to build bone, blood and sinew in the individual, has most of its life-giving properties absorbed by this monster.

In consequence, the entire system of the human being so afflicted becomes broken down, the blood becomes impure, the stomach is thrown out of order, the nerves are affected, and even the mind loses its wanted keenness and becomes dull and sluggish.

Contrary to general belief the appetite is not greatly increased, it only becomes irregular so that, at times, the mere sight of food will nauseate and at other times the individual will eat ravenously.

One of the surest indications of this trouble is a general feeling of lassitude and a disinclination for all effort and extreme nervousness. The individual almost invariably thinks himself the victim of many ills, and does first one thing and then another, hoping to rid himself of an imaginary disease.

As I have already stated I have found these parasites to be very common. Sooner than take the chance of having one of these terrible things in their system and subjecting themselves to untold misery, every one should see that every particle of their food is thoroughly cooked.

Mr. Abe Adamany, 515 Glen St., was relieved of one of these life-sucking monsters after taking Vurpillat's preparation for a few days.

This office at 509 W. Milwaukee St. will be kept open Sunday from 10 a. m. to 4 p. m. for the benefit of the working people who are unable to take advantage of the free consultation and examination during the week.

J. P. Baker the druggist who is local distributing agent for the Vurpillat remedies, has been obliged to order more of the medicine the great demand has been great for the Vurpillat preparations.

YARDS HOTEL IS TO BE OPENED SOON

Need of Boarding House For Railroad Men in Demonstrated.

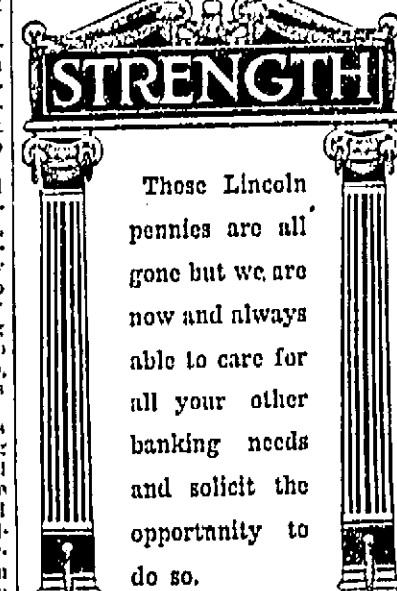

After being vacant for four months, the new hotel at two yards will probably be open for business by next Monday. George C. Carle, operator of the new yards and proprietor of the railroad men's boarding house on the Lincoln farm, has completed arrangements for occupying the building. The work of cleaning and renovating the big building was started today and Mr. Carle will probably move his office early next week.

Under the management of the Western Boarding and Supply Co. the venture did not prove successful. The building was new, the heating arrangements were not worked to the full in order to keep the building warm in the winter, while the rival boarding house made deep inroads in the patronage. Under the management of Mr. Carle, however, it is expected that these disadvantages will be removed and the hotel receive the exclusive patronage of the train crews.

INVENTION CURES HAMS QUICK

Long Device Consisting of Long, Pointed Tube Made of Segmental Sections and Blade Conducts Pickling Solution.

Formerly it required from 30 to 60 days to cure a ham. Now, through the genius of a Minnesota man, the work can be done in much less time and more effectively. The old way to cure a ham was to throw it into a vat of pickle and let it soak for a month or two until the pickle had thoroughly saturated the meat. The new pickling device consists of a long, pointed tube made of segmental sections and a blade closing around them to form a barrel, which conducts the pickling solution. A crosspiece at the handle prevents the tube from sinking too far into the meat. This tube is thrust into the center of the ham and the pickle flows to the inside, penetrating rapidly to all parts and effecting a cure much quicker and more effectively than in the old method. The tube is removed before the ham is consigned to the smokehouse.

SUN AFFECTS EARTH'S ORBIT.

Centrifugal Tendency Prevents Planet from Being Drawn Directly Toward the Center of Attraction.

The earth's motion is the resultant of component forces. These forces are, first, gravitation, or the attraction of the sun for the earth; second, the momentum of the earth's mass, which imparts to the earth the centrifugal tendency or the tendency to fly off its orbit in the direction of the tangent. The attraction of the sun for the earth prevents the tangential motion, while the centrifugal tendency prevents the earth from being drawn directly toward the center of attraction.

In the illustration reproduced here, at the points B and D the sun's attraction is the same and the earth's velocity is the same, but the direction of the earth's movement is not the same at both points; that is to say, the centrifugal tendencies at those two points are different. At B, owing to the action of component forces which have brought it to that point, the resultant tendency is slightly towards the sun with an increasing velocity. At D, however, the direction of motion is slightly away from the sun, and therefore, since the component forces, namely, the attraction of the sun and the centrifugal motion at D are different from those at B,

then the resultant motion is different. The difference in motion, then, is caused by the difference in centrifugal tendencies at the two points.

YOU DON'T DRINK ENOUGH MILK

Here Is a Fact That Should Make You Uncomfortable

We want to urge you to drink as much milk as you ought to drink.

One thing is sure—you, Mrs. Housewife and Mr. Husband and the little ones DO NOT DRINK ENOUGH MILK.

You don't preserve the balance in your diet that Nature meant you to. You drink too much of other fluids that heat the blood, and you take too much solid food that overtaxes the energy of the gastric juices to dissolve.

Here is a fact that should make you uncomfortable:

A close estimate will show that Janesville's citizens consume only one-half pint of milk a day apiece.

Doctors say you should consume ONE QUART of good fresh milk every day in the year, to remain vigorous and healthful—cool in the summer and warm in the winter—undisturbed by indigestion and any of the food ills.

We could tell you about the water, fat, casein, albumen, milk sugar and ash, which, unconsciously joined together by the cow, compose milk, but that's the doctor's story and WE DO NOT WANT TO USURP HIS PLACE.

You do not drink enough milk to keep yourself in the pink of condition, in spite of the fact, which is a matter of careful record, that—

Janesville has one of the very best milk services in the country and that this best milk costs no more than the raw milk.

A Word About Our Pasteurized Milk

There is no milkman in or near Janesville that has the facilities for cleanliness that we have. Cleanliness and purity is our greatest consideration. Our modern milk depot is equipped with a pasteurization plant. Our bottles are not only washed clean, but are sterilized with live steam before being filled. Not only this, but every machine, every implement in our depot is sterilized every day, even the cement floors.

Others may pasteurize (commercially) to keep the milk from souring during warm weather, but we pasteurize for purity all the year round. There is all the difference in the world in the methods.

Our milk is rich—twenty-five per cent richer than the legal standard. It is tested every day so as to give you uniformity of richness.

Our cream is very rich—almost twice as rich as the legal standard provides. It is always rich enough to whip if kept in a cool place.

FOR BABIES our pasteurized milk is an absolute necessity. In the past, impure and unpasteurized milk has slain regiments of infants by means of the millions and millions of bacteria which are permitted to remain in the milk despite their known presence.

It is excellent for people with weak stomachs. Being absolutely pure, free from live germs of any kind and delivered in sterilized bottles, sealed with antiseptic stoppers, practically airtight, there is no possibility for impurities of any kind.

Our pasteurized milk costs no more than raw milk, yet it could not be made any purer, if it cost four times as much.

The milk is FRESH—it's CLEAN—it's SWEET AS THE PASTURE LANDS THEMSELVES.

Try a bowl of milk and crackers for lunch, and drink a glass of milk at dinner-time.

YOU WILL FEEL THE BETTER FOR IT.

Every day our wagon passes your door. It's an easy matter to get the best milk and cream. Just hail the man.

We have gone to a great expense to give you better service. You can gain by taking advantage of it without any additional cost. Do it now, while you have it in mind.

ONLY TWO MORE DAYS OF OUR GREAT SPECIAL OFFER

Contestants Eagerly Taking Advantage of a Splendid Opportunity —Remind Your Friends—Do Not Let Them Forget About the Promised Subscriptions.

Owing to the great rush of business on Friday, the Contest Manager was unable to make the regular 9 o'clock count. The standings of the contestants in this issue remain the same as last night and all votes cast for the count of all Friday and Saturday will be counted in Monday's issue.

Just two more days in which to take advantage of the special offer that we are making for new subscriptions. The contest is now on the fifth week and it is time to rally your friends. So that they do not forget their promise; they forget or something causes them to change their minds, and you lose several thousands votes,
so do not let them forget.

The contestants in all districts are fully alive to the importance of this contest in offering to subscribe to the paper. Some of these contestants are securing one of these beautiful Newman Bros. pianos. These pianos have been purchased from Mr.
Scott, and his guarantee goes with each and every instrument.

Above all things do not get discouraged because some one else has a few more votes than you. A few thousand votes do not count in the contest, and those at the very bottom have an equal show to win with those at the top of the list.
No matter how many votes anyone else may have, do not lose courage, shut up make up your mind to win and then go after the votes. Subscriptions are not hard to secure. If you go about it right, and the contest department is ready and willing at all times to show you how to get them.

If you have any friends who desire to win, send them up to the contest manager, and he will give them a receipt book, and show them how to go about getting votes. Call on the contest manager at any time, and he will furnish you with information and assist you in any way possible.
Don't wait for others to get the votes, but start for them and make up for any time that you may have lost waiting for others to vote for you.
A great many people do not understand, and for their satisfaction we wish to say that anyone starting to take the paper since the contest started will always be considered a new subscriber during the life of the contest, and votes given accordingly. If you start the paper now and wish to pay more during the contest, you will receive the same number of votes as a new subscriber.

Prizes on Exhibition.
Two of the elegant pianos can be seen at the Chalmers and Parsons store of C. F. Putnam, the diamonds and watching in the show window of Janeville's popular Jewellers Olin & Olson
"Future" Orders.
Don't give up getting a piano as a subscriber, simply because it is already taking some other paper. Take the subscription to The Gazette to be in at the expiration of the other paper, and when that time arrives, he will begin to receive The Gazette.
Open Evenings.
For the benefit of those who cannot call during business hours this office and contest department will be open every evening until 8 o'clock.

THE WOOD INDUSTRY

IS TO BE STUDIED

State is Going to Take Up Special Work in This Department of Forestry.

The large number of hardwoods and softwoods produced in Wisconsin compared with the development of the many rivers for power and the excellent rail and water facilities offered manufacturers, has resulted in the state having as much hardwood in industry as can be boasted of in any other commonwealth in the union. The products made in the state and distributed throughout the country run the entire alphabet from agricultural implements to zoological apparatus for merry-go-rounds.
A study of the wood-using industries of the state which is expected will bring forth some interesting facts and figures, as well as much information of value to the buyers and sellers of wood in the state, is to be undertaken by the forest service working in conjunction with the state board of forestry. The purpose is to ascertain such important facts as the species used in the manufacture of the various products, the methods of manufacture, the distribution of the resulting goods, the approximate cost and amount of the material utilized each year by the factories, the total amount of the material produced for home consumption, and the form in which the raw material is desired at the factory. Fully six hundred manufacturers will be requested to give information for the benefit of the industry as a whole, and the combined report will be given distribution in printed form. Wisconsin ranks fifth among the states in the production of lumber, and it is believed the coming study will show the state to rank well up in the production of articles manufactured from the lumber cut in the state.

CHAPTER XXVII

DEPPINGHAM sprang to his feet with a fierce oath on his lips. His usually lustrous eyes were gleaming with something more than despair. There was the wild light of unmistakable relief in them. It was as if a horrible doubt had been sealed from the soul of Lady Deppingham's husband.

"We must follow!" shouted his lordship, preparing to lower himself into the jagged opening. "We may be in time!"

"Stop, Deppingham!" cried Chase, leaping to his side. "Don't rush blindly into a trap like that. They've got an hour or more start of us. Nothing will be accomplished by rushing into an ambush. They'll kill us like rats. Raoul is a sanguine scoundrel. He'll not take the entire responsibility. There will be a council of all the heads. It will be of no advantage to them to kill the help unless they are sure that we won't live to tell the tale. They will go slow now that they have the chief obstacles to victory in their hands."

"If they will give her up to me I will guarantee that Lady Agnes shall relinquish all claim to the estate," announced the harassed husband.

"They won't do that, old man. Promises won't tempt them," protested Chase. "We've got to do what we can to rescue them. I'm with you, gentlemen, in the undertaking—first, for humanity's sake; second, because I am your friend; last, because I don't want my clients to lose all chance of winning out in this controversy by letting the confounded women, it isn't what Sir John expects of me."

In the meantime the anxious eavesdropper in the chateau was waiting eagerly for the return of the searchers. Deppingham's usual remark, half unconsciously, no doubt, that resided in the ears of the princess for days. It was the cold, bitter, resigned epitome of the young wife's thoughts:

"Robert has loved her for months."

That was all.

Mr. and Mrs. Saunders, thankful that something had happened to divert attention from their own conspicuous plight, were discussing freely in the center of a group composed of the four Englishmen from the bank.

"It's a plain out and out elopement," said Mrs. Saunders, fanning herself vigorously.

"But, my dear," expostulated her husband, blushing vividly over the first public use of the appellation, "where the devil could they elope to?"

"I don't know, Tommy, but elopers never take that into consideration. Do they, Mr. Howells?"

At last the four men appeared in the mouth of the cavern. The watchers below fell into chilled silence when they discovered that the missing ones were not with them. Stupefied with apprehension, they watched the men descend the ladder and cross the bridge.

"They are dead," fell from Drusilla Browne's lips. She lay on the ground in a faint, and then sank to the ground in unconsciousness.

In the conference which followed the return of the searchers it was settled that three of the original party should undertake the further prosecution of the hunt for the two helms. Lord Deppingham found ready volunteers in Chase and the faithful Selim. They prepared to go out in the hills before the night was an hour older.

Selim convinced Chase that the wily Raoul would carry his captive to the inn, where he was in full power.

"You're right, Selim. If he's tried that game we'll beat him at it. Ten to one if he hasn't already chucked them into the sea they're now confined in."

of the government. "We have them safely in our hands. The others will soon die. Then—then there can be no mistake. They must be taken to the mines and kept there until I have explained everything to the people. Part of us shall conduct them to the lower mill and the rest of us go on to the bank with these chests of gold."

Raoul and six of the sturdiest men prepared to continue the journey to Ararat, transporting the chests. Five sullen, resentful fellows moved over beside the captives and threw themselves down upon the grassy sward.

"We will wait here till day comes," growled one of them defiantly. "Why should we risk our necks going down the pass tonight? It is 1 o'clock. The sun will be here in three hours. Go on!"

"As you like, Abon Dal," said Raoul, shrugging his pinched shoulders. "I shall come to the mill at 4 o'clock."

Turning to the prisoners, he bowed low and said, with a soft laugh: "Adios, my lady, and you, most noble ones. May your dreams be pleasant ones. Dream that you are wedded and have come into the wealth of Japan, but spare none of your dream to the husband and wife who are lying awake and weeping for the foolish ones who would go searching for the forbidden fruit. Folly is a hard road to travel, and it leads to the graveyard of fools. Adios!"

Agnes bent over and dropped her face into her hands. She was trembling convulsively. Browne did not show the slightest sign that he had heard the galling words.

At a single sharp command the six men picked up the three chests and moved off rapidly down the road, Raoul striking ahead with the flashing torch.

They were barely out of sight when Deppingham moved as though impulsive was driving him into immediate attack upon the guards who were left behind with the unhappy prisoners.

Chase laid a restraining hand upon his arm.

"Wait! Plenty of time. Wait an hour. Don't spoil everything. We'll have them sure," he breathed in the other's ear.

The minutes slipped by with excruciating slowness. The watchful eyes of the three watchers missed nothing that took place in the little grassy meadow below them. They could have sprung almost into the center of the group from the position they occupied. Two of the men sat with their backs to the rocks, their rifles across their knees. The others sprawled lazily upon the soft grass. Two torches stuck in the earth threw a weird light over the scene.

Bobby Browne was now lying with his shoulder against a fallen tree trunk, staring with unswerving gaze at the woman across the way. She was looking off into the night, steadfastly refusing to glance in his direction.

Then suddenly Lady Agnes arose to her feet and lifted her hands high to ward the black dome of heaven. She knelt, and prayed aloud to her God, the smiling islanders looking on in silent devotion.

UNITED STATES WILL WARN JAPAN

UNCLE SAM TO CALL HALT IF CHINA'S DOORS ARE CLOSED.

CRISIS SEEMS TO BE NEAR

European Powers Also Watching Actions of Mikado's Government in Manchuria and Motives and Intentions Are Under Question.

Washington, Aug. 14.—The United States will call Japan to task if any attempt is made to close the doors of China to the trade of this country. Such a step has been definitely decided upon and Japan knows it.

The "open door" was insisted upon by the United States ten years ago, when Russia was dominant in China, and when Japan was clamoring for trade. The action of the United States at that time was highly pleasing to Japan, and contributed to the success of the Japanese in expelling Russia, although that was far from the purpose of the Washington government.

Situation Different Now.

Because the United States insisted on the "open door" at that time the Japanese government regarded it as an act of friendship to Tokyo and not a firm and irrevocable stroke of American policy. Now Japan is to learn that the American contention for the "open door" in China was not directed at Russia, but at all powers that attempt to dominate China to the exclusion of United States commerce.

Russia to-day is occupying much the same position that Japan did ten years ago, when Secretary Hay insisted on the "open door." The St. Petersburg government wants to see Japan driven out of Manchuria and Korea.

Powers Watching Japan.

The lean is watching Japan's conduct very closely for any breach in Manchuria that would justify protest. Not only Russia is watching Japan's conduct, but so are Germany, France, Holland, Italy and Austria, throughout continental Europe, as well as in the United States, to see whether Japan in any way violates the principles contended for by the powers, and for this reason her actions will be watched closely by them. Should such probability become evident, the time will be ripe for some very pertinent questions directed to the Japanese government as to her motives and intentions.

Statement Sent to Powers.

Both Japan and China have laid before the American state department statements setting forth their attitude in the matter of the Antung-Mukden dispute and reviewing the conditions leading up to the crisis culminating in Japan's ultimatum to China and the latter's response. These statements are intended to show clearly the predominating reasons which have actuated the respective governments in the steps they have taken, and are communicated to the respective governments for information only. The time may arrive, however, when they may become valuable on any consideration of the question at issue between China and Japan by the foreign offices of the government to which they are communicated.

Situation Grows Critical.

Peking, Aug. 14.—A special meeting of the grand council, at which all the counselors were present, was held at midnight to discuss Manchurian affairs.

On account of the decision of China to reopen negotiations with Japan at Mukden regarding the Antung-Mukden railroad, and the general status of the other Manchurian questions with Japan, Hsi-Liang, viceroy of Manchuria, has resigned. The government is considering the appointment to this office of Chou-Kih-Hsun, formerly governor of Chuen.

SAY DEAD CHILD WAS CURED.

St. Louisans Inlet Trance Medium Brought Life to Baby.

St. Louis, Aug. 14.—Edward Kneapp and wife of this city report the remarkable recovery of their infant son Lester, whom they insist was dead. The boy was afflicted in a shroud ready for burial, but was brought to life, they say, by the laying on of hands by a trance medium.

The child is five months old and one of twins. Since birth it has suffered from malnutrition. In appearance it looks like a little old man, with the wrinkles of 70 years. At birth it weighed five pounds. It weighs seven pounds at the present time.

Firemen's Convention Closes.

Lansing, Mich., Aug. 14.—The National Firemen's association closed a three day's convention here by electing the following officers: President, John M. Rhorwood, Kenosha, Wis.; vice-president, Hugo R. Delfe, Fishers, Mich.; secretary, Capt. Bert Fisher, Chicago; treasurer, Thomas H. Johnston, Crookston, Minn.; national organizer, Robert Grace, Oklahoma City, Okla.

Boy Shah Forced to Wed.

London, Aug. 14.—A special dispatch from Tehran says that despite his protests, Aliad Mirza, the young shah of Persia, will be officially married soon and that his household is now being arranged. The shah is 11 years old.

Remove Ban on American Cattle.

Thomas Ayres, Aug. 14.—The minister of agriculture has annulled the decree of 1908, prohibiting the importation into Argentina of American cattle.
